

Before you read the following biography, which was written by another, I want you to know this ministry is not about me. It's about my great God and Savior Jesus Christ who saved me from a life of sin. In the biography many noteworthy accomplishments in the eyes of the world are mentioned. From my perspective, they are all rubbish in light of the relationship I have with Christ, my blessed Savior.

Rev. Henry W. Hastings III

At a Bible conference, a man, who was enamored with the fact that I was a Special Forces Combat Diver and Army Ranger, approached me. He told me if I moved to his town, people would flock to hear me speak. He said, "There are hundreds of people who would listen to a Green Beret speak, especially with current events the way they are." I don't desire people flocking to hear me. This life and ministry is about the person and work of one man—Jesus Christ. He is the One with whom we should be enamored. I am only an instrument of the Lord's and it is by His grace that I have the honor of communicating His infallible Word. Don't look to me, look to the Lord—trust in Him to teach you by His Spirit who indwells you.

People have often expressed their thanksgiving for what they've learned and how it has changed their life. I am encouraged that the Lord has found it pleasing to use me in such a manner, but the teaching that is changing lives is the Lord's doctrine not mine. It is God the Holy Spirit who makes what is taught a living reality. Therefore, let your thanksgiving be unto the Lord. The apostle Paul said,

"What then is Apollos? And what is Paul? Servants through whom you believed." (1 Cor. 3:5a)

With that understood, you may read the biography.

Henry W. Hastings III was born in Newport Beach, California. He became a believer in the Lord Jesus Christ on December 14, 1991. Shortly after this event, he recognized he had the spiritual gift of Pastor-Teacher and began to focus on the preparation needed for communicating God's Word. He enrolled in Dallas Theological Seminary in the fall of 1993 and graduated in 1999 earning a Master's Degree in Theology (ThM). He was ordained on June 7, 1997. After 15 years of military service, Henry resigned his commission as a Major in the United States Army in order to focus his efforts on the ministry.

Pastor Hastings' Theology Degree with emphasis on Academic Ministries and Bible Exposition, equipped and prepared him to teach the Bible within its historical context. By utilizing verse-by-verse exegesis from the original biblical languages, Koine Greek, Hebrew, and Aramaic, and by employing an array of visual media, Henry is able to communicate to believers the thinking of Jesus Christ and equip them for spiritual growth. Reverend Hastings is currently the pastor at Grace Atlanta Bible Church, Atlanta, Georgia. He resides in Atlanta with his wife and two children.

It will not return to Me empty, Without accomplishing what I desire, And without succeeding in the matter for which I sent it.

Message from the President

2008 has been a year of encouragement within testing. The website was suspended due to lack of funds to continue operations from July 15th—August 12th. Letters of encouragement along with the funds to resume operations came in from around the world as a testimony that the Lord works in people to will and to do. The Spiritual Basics Series was made available for download and the Gospel tract, Am I Going to Heaven was published. In 2009 you can expect to see the Divine Works of Grace published along with live video streaming of all Bible classes.

Phil. 1:3,
